

Greensboro Cultural Center Building Safety Rules

To: Tenants, Instructors, Camp Counselors, Campers, Visitors, Volunteers and Parents

To maintain a safe and manageable environment in the Greensboro Cultural Center, the following rules and regulations have been implemented.

1. All children (12 and under) must be accompanied by an adult at all times, including visits to vending area as well as drop off and pick up. Parents must bring children into center for classes, shows etc. Children may not come in the center alone or leave alone. Children must be checked in and out.
2. Children (12 and under) may not be in or walk around the building before or after class unless accompanied by an adult.
3. Shoes must be worn at all times when in common areas. No bare feet coming in and out of class rooms, studios, etc.
4. If children leave a space please do a head count before you leave the space, when you leave to go back to your space and when you get in your space.
5. No yelling or running is permitted. Please remember this is an office building and gallery space for many organizations. Help us maintain a professional environment.
6. No sitting, standing or playing on stairs.
7. Leave things as you found them, especially in common areas. If you move furniture (benches, etc...) please return it to its original location. If a mess is made, please clean the area up.
8. Flush all toilets after use. Do not put paper in the urinals.
9. Tenants may use the Atrium's for lunches however you must check with Facility Manager or Facility Staff to see if the space is booked for an event that day. If you are permitted to use space please pick up all trash and put in cans provided.
